

IDRC Davos 2010 – An Interdisciplinary Dialogue

Dear Colleague,

I look forward to welcoming you in less than four weeks to the IDRC Davos 2010 conference, on 30 May - 3 June. If you have not yet registered I encourage you to do so. Don't miss the opportunity for an interdisciplinary dialogue with colleagues and top-level experts.

Sincerely yours

Dr. Walter J. Ammann,
Chairman IDRC Davos 2010

Quick Links

[IDRC Davos 2010
Special Offer](#)

[IDRC Davos 2010
Speakers and Panellists](#)

[IDRC Davos 2010
Programme](#)

[IDRC Davos 2010
IDRC in the Web](#)

[IDRC Davos 2010
Register now!](#)

IDRC Davos 2010 Special Offer: Register 5 – Pay 4

Until 14 May 2010 GRF Davos offers special group rates. One of five regular registered participants from an organisation resp. a company is allowed free admission to the conference (only full registrations!). Use this unique opportunity and register now

Special Group Offer

Speakers

We are pleased to present a list of out-standing experts from politics, administration, IGOs, NGOs, academia, and the business sector. The latest confirmed panellists are:

Maria Mutagamba, Minister for Water and Environment, Kampala, Uganda

Admiral James Stavridis, USN Supreme Allied Commander, US European Commander

Saroj Kumar Jha, Director GFDRR, World Bank, Washington, USA;

Janos Pasztor, Director UN SG Climate Change Support Team, New York, USA;

Stephan Rahmstorf, Professor Potsdam-Institute (PIK), Potsdam, Germany

Zhijian Wang, Vice-Director, China Emergency and Rescue Management Institute, Beijing, P.R. China

See the whole list of IDRC Davos 2010 panellists>>>

IDRC Davos 2010 Speakers

Topics

A vital mix of session formats, workshops and teaching courses grants for a profound science-policy-practice exchange. Topics, among others are:

- Global change and its impact on development and security
- Urban risks, mega cities and critical infrastructure
- Mega catastrophes, humanitarian logistics, ICT in risk and crisis management

- Desertification, land degradation, drought and food security
- Integrated risk governance, risk reduction, climate change adaptation

IDRC Davos Topics

Latest News on Social Media

Follow us on facebook, Twitter or you tube and stay informed. Do not miss the latest news about GRF and IDRC Davos 2010. Download the latest conference presentations on slideshare. Use the possibility to follow IDRC Davos 2010 in realtime - videos, slidepresentations and the latest news will not only be published on our website, but also on facebook, slideshare, twitter and youtube

Participate in the GRF Risk Academy Continuous Education Programme:

A vital mix of session formats, workshops and teaching courses grants for a profound science-policy-practice exchange. Topics, among others are:

- 2-Day Continuous Education Course "Reducing Risks and Managing Disasters - A Modern Integrated Approach
- EU Project Development Course

Book your accommodation in Davos here:

- Accommodation in Davos

www.grforum.org

This message was sent to m1.h@gmx.de by grf-presidency@grforum.org

Unsubscribe / Manage | Forward Email | Report Abuse

Email Marketing by

Promenade 35, Davos , Outside US 7270, Switzerland